Diplomat John Davies Fired By Sec. Dulles

Advised By Five-Man Board

WASHINGTON (AP)—John Paton Davies, controversial diplomat cleared eight times under the Truman administration, was fired by Secretary of State Dulles Friday from his post as chairman of the five-man inquiry board he had founded.

Dulles, who said he acted on the unanimous recommendation of a five-man inquiry board, declared that neither he nor the board had found Davies "disloyal in the sense of having any Communist affinity" or consciously helping an enemy of this country.

Davies, under attack for years by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) and others, said he would not contest Dulles' ruling. He handed reporters a statement saying:

"There has been enough recrimination. I am not prepared to add to it and thereby detract from the strength of my country in its mortal struggle with the Communist enemy . . . I must be content to let history be my judge."

Davies has been a target of criticism by those who contend that U.S. officials did not give sufficient aid to the Chiang Kai-shek regime in China and that this helped pave the way for the Communist takeover. Much of Davies' 23-year diplomatic service was in China.

Published State Department records state that during World War II years Davies expressed the belief power in China was shifting from the Nationalists to the Reds.

According to these records, he argued the United States must take strong measures to revitalize Chiang's party, saying that it then could be a "significant force" in a coalition Chinese government in which the Communists would take part. If Chiang's Kuomintang party could not be "reformed," he said, the United States should consider working with the Chinese Communists to prevent the Russians from taking over.

But Davies' critics contended that the net effect of such a policy would be aid to the Chinese Reds.

Patrick J. Hurley, who was ambassador to China in 1944-45, accused Davies and others of "sabotaging" a policy of aiding Chiang.

Davies, in his statement Friday, said he would welcome public disclosures by Dulles of the whole record of his case. Such a disclosure, he said, should include "my 1950 recommendations that we seek a preventive showdown with the Soviet Union." This was the first public intimation that he had made such a recommendation. He did not

Murdered Girl, 15, Found In Garage In Own Back Yard

NORWOOD, Mass. (AP)—A 15-year-old school girl was found murdered in the garage in her own back yard Friday, apparent victim of a sex attacker.

The body of Geraldine Annesse, a student at Peabody Vocational School, a branch of Norwood High, was nude. Her clothing had been ripped from her head and strown around the garage, police said.

Dist. Atty. Myron Lane said an autopsy disclosed bruises on the girl's neck, a torn fingernail indicating a struggle and indications of a brain hemorrhage, probably from a blow on the head.

He said the girl was killed in a sex attack.

Lane also said investigators found "several pieces of tangible evidence" in the garage, which made him optimistic that the killer will be found. He declined to disclose what was found.

Geraldine was out on a double date Thursday night with a schoolgirl friend, Cynthia Savage, and two 16-year-old boys, Ted Baker and Robert Durning, of nearby Walpole. A third boy, Don Shire, also 16, of Walpole, joined them during the evening in a round of teenagers' "night spots" in Norwood, Walpole and Franklin.

They drove Geraldine home about 10 p.m., letting her out of the car at a corner 75 yards from her home. She had to pass a vacant lot and the two car garage in her own yard en route to her home, the second floor of a three family tenement.

Can Congress Stop Dixon-Yates Contract? Demos, GOP Argue

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R-N.Y.) said Friday Congress is powerless to stop the controversial Dixon-Yates power contract from going into effect. But Sen. Gore (D-Tenn.) predicted the new Democratic-controlled Congress would take steps to kill it.

The exchange of views sharpened a party-line split during public hearings by the Senate—House Atomic Energy Committee on the proposal to have private interests erect a 107 million dollar steam plant to supply added power to the Tennessee Valley Authority.

Cole is chairman of the committee, which is weighing an administration request to give an immediate go-ahead for the contract, approved but not yet signed by the Atomic Energy Commission.

Display Murdered Woman's Teeth At Sheppard Trial

CLEVELAND (AP)—Two of Marilyn Sheppard's shattered front teeth were displayed in court Friday at the first degree murder trial of her osteopath husband.

The gruesome relics were passed from juror to juror for inspection.

The teeth were produced as the defense unleashed a scathing, mile-long cross examination, striving to discredit the doctor who made the autopsy on Marilyn.

"We are showing that the investigation of this case was bungled from the very outset," Defense Atty. William J. Corrigan boasted to reporters.

He claimed the teeth could have been broken off as Marilyn struggled for life with her slayer the night of July 4, and that her teeth might have left their mark on her slayer's hand.

Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard, on trial in the murder of his wife, bore no such teeth marks after the slaying.

Corrigan also pointed out to the jury similarities and a certain symmetry to the head wounds that killed Marilyn. He thus suggested that a multiple-pronged weapon like a garden tool might have been picked up as a weapon by an intruder about to break into and rob the Sheppard home.

"I think I know what the weapon was," Corrigan remarked outside of court. He said no more.

Student Nurse In Michigan Hospital Found Strangled

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP)—Miss Marilyn Kral, 20, a student nurse at the Kalamazoo State Hospital for mental patients, was found strangled to death Friday night in the basement of the hospital.

Dr. Horace Cobb, coroner, said she apparently had been assaulted criminally.

Miss Kral had been strangled with a red necktie. Her assailant had ripped off most of her clothing.

She was daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Kral (pronounced "Cry") of 24 E. 18th St., Holland, Mich.

Miss Kral was a student nurse at Mercy Hospital in Grand Rapids but she had been assigned on affiliation duty at the State Hospital in Kalamazoo.

An employee of the hospital found the body in a hydrotherapy laboratory. The nurse apparently had been assaulted in a hallway and dragged into the laboratory.

Miss Kral was off duty at 5:30 p.m. She had arranged to meet several other nurses for supper.

Her friends waited for her until around 6:30 p.m., and when she failed to show up a search was started.

In her purse was found a letter addressed to a friend. She ended the letter by writing "It is now 5:35 p.m. and I have to go."

Police said a patient at the hospital had been taken into custody for questioning.

Federal Judge Casper Platt continued the case to Nov. 22 for a pre-sentence investigation.

All but about $3,000 taken in the robbery has been recovered.

Nicholas-Louis Robert, of France, invented the first practical machine which could make paper in long sheets.

Japan Is Prize Reds Are After, Yoshida Says

NEW YORK (AP)—Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida of Japan said Friday night "only the blind will fail to see that the Communists regard Japan as the ultimate prize of their Pacific conquests."

Aiding the Communist design in Asia, he said, is "ancient and deep-seated poverty and disease" and the "strong nationalist emotions that have followed in the wake of freedom from centuries of colonial rule."

Economic, political and cultural plans of the Allies therefore are the "test of strength in fighting communism in Asia" as much as military plans, he added in a speech to the Japan Society.

Turning to Japan's economic problems, Yoshida said the first problem in the way of a healthy expansion of his country's export trade is "widespread use of tariff barriers and import restrictions."

"Artificial barriers," he said, "are a constricting influence on world trade and a divisive influence among nations."

He did not mention the United States, but said "No nation is wholly without sin in this respect."

Reducing the standard of living, he said, would be a tragic invitation to Communist infiltration and exploitation."

A deflation and austerity program has brought inflation under control, he said, and efforts are being made to step up production and seek out new markets.

Yoshida, imprisoned by Japanese authorities during World War II as a pacifist and liberal, had a private chat with his old friend, Gen. Douglas MacArthur, earlier in the day. They knew each other when MacArthur was head of the military government in Japan.

He declined to specify but said the AEC commissioners might well be persuaded to cancel the contract. "They might be persuaded not to execute it."

Democratic congressmen, who made the contract a hot campaign issue, have insisted that the committee observe the full 30-day waiting period thereby carrying it over to the next session. Top administration spokesmen have urged that it be waived to permit construction of the plant in time to supply additional power needed by 1957 in the TVA area.

The power would be furnished nervously for 2 hours and 11 minutes, an American Airlines plane with a crippling nose wheel ground to a precarious but safe landing at National Airport Friday.

The airline said none of the 13 passengers or 3 crew members was injured, and damage to the big twin-engined Convair plane was "very slight."

But the incident gripped one of the world's busiest airports in high tension. And as one passenger put it, "Boy, was I scared."

Thousands of onlookers watched breathlessly as iron-nerved pilot W.C. Wilkerson of Nashville, Tenn., touched the runway at about 100 miles per hour with his two main wheels, which were working properly.

The plane raced down the runway and slowly settled on its damaged nose wheel, which folded under the burden. The orange-streaked aluminum nose bumped into the concrete and the plane halted almost immediately, its tail sticking awkwardly high in the air.

A big cheer broke the hush which had settled over the field. Passengers slid down an emergency canopy chute to the ground.

O.D.M. FORMS UNIT ON CENSORSHIP

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Office of Defense Mobilization Friday created a Committee on National Censorship Planning headed by Lt. Gen. Willard S. Paul, Ret. Nine military officers will be represented on the panel, which will have the task of getting a blueprint ready for use in case of need.

The contract now provides for advance estimates of these taxes and incorporates them into a base capacity charge of nine million dollars annually to be paid by the AEC over the 25-year period.

In that respect, Gore testified, the contract still violates "the spirit and the letter" of an amendment which he sponsored and the last Congress approved prohibiting direct reimbursement to the company for federal income taxes.

PROBE TOW. AUTO REPAIR RACKET IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO (AP)—Chicago's police commissioner Friday ordered an investigation into a report that some policemen are running a towing and auto repair racket.

The report was given by Virgil E. Peterson, operating director of the Chicago Crime Commission. He wrote Police Commissioner Timothy J. O'Connor that officers at accident scenes have directed motorists to certain garages.

In return, Peterson declared, the policemen receive a cut of exorbitant towing and repair bills.

O'Connor said any officer found assaulting an officer, getting paid for such activity will be taken before the police trial board.

SEN. GEORGE ON TAX CUTS

MACON, Ga. (AP)—Sen. George (D-Ga.) said Friday any tax relief will be given by the newly elected Democratic 84th Congress would favor small taxpayers rather than corporations.

Clock Chokes Man Who Wound It For 17 Years, To Death

LONDON (AP)—Twice a week for the past 17 years Thomas Manners, 82, climbed to the bell tower to wind the great clock at the Law Courts Building. Friday the clock choked him to death.

The clock—a London landmark—kept right on operating but stopped tolling the hours. Manners' body was discovered by two workmen who were summoned to investigate the clock's striking apparatus.

Manners' long brown coat got caught in the clock's mechanism and was drawn tight until he strangled.

The clock has been ringing out the hours since 1882 when it was placed some 120 feet above The Strand near Fleet Street on the Law Courts, where most of Britain's important civil cases are heard.

Editorial Comment

A GREAT VICTORY IN ILLINOIS

While in many respects the results of last Tuesday's balloting between Democratic candidates and Republican contenders for political office were extremely close, confusing and inconclusive, there was no doubt at all about the voters' approval of the Blue Ballot constitutional amendments. All of these amendments carried by overwhelming majorities.

On one of these issues, the most important one of reapportionment, this result was not won easily. There was plenty of opposition, especially from legislators representing the West side bloc of Chicago and downstate districts with relatively small populations. Paul Powell of Vienna, Democratic leader of the Illinois House of Representatives, defied the more responsible leaders of his party and worked unceasingly against redistricting. So did many G.O.P. solons, though many of them did not so openly seek to thwart the strong leadership of Governor Stratton.

The fight for fair representation, considered by nearly every unbiased political observer as one of the first requirements for a better legislative branch of the state government, was won only through the coordinated efforts and dedication of many groups and individuals from all walks of life in the state.

The Committee for Constitutional Revision, under the able leadership of Samuel Witwer of Chicago, deserves a great deal of credit for organizing support for the propositions. It is not an easy thing to explain to the voters a matter as complicated as reapportionment, nor to glamorize an issue of a rather dry, technical nature. But the Committee went about the task with the willing assistance of groups like the Farm Bureau, and the A. F. of L., the Chamber of Commerce, and the Bar Associations, and got a difficult job of public information accomplished.

The Adduci affair exploded at an opportune time, too, from the standpoint of focusing attention upon the corrupt manipulations which go on in the now greatly overrepresented west side Chicago districts.

Under the new reapportionment amendment the power of the West Side bloc should be greatly diminished. There should be fewer Adducis in the legislature passing upon our laws, and more legislators of the high caliber of Mrs. Bernice Van der Vries, whose suburban district of Cook County, with 20 times more people than Adduci's, will gain an equal voice in the selection of lawmakers.

We regard the outcome of the election on the Blue Ballot Amendments as a great victory for all of the people of Illinois, regardless of party affiliation. It augurs well for better government in this state.

In Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. — Producer Leland Hayward today disclosed how Ernest Hemingway happened to publish "The Old Man and the Sea," the book which helped him win a Nobel Prize last week.

He was writing and he said it was a big book with four parts and a coda concluding passage. He had finished two of the parts, but he didn't like them and was doing them over again. He was satisfied with the coda, and said "you want read?" He talks in a kind of shorthand.

"I sat down and read the whole thing in 20 minutes. I am a very fast reader, and Hemingway's copy is typewritten in capitals with large spaces between the lines for revisions.

He watched my face throughout the time I was reading. When I finished, the tears were streaming down my face. I told him it was way to get needed power in the greatest thing he had written."

Hemingway took the manuscript to meet money for another TVA plant at West Memphis. Atk. It would supply TVA with power to make up for TVA power given to the rest through long-term bonds.

The basic charges to the government, figured at $20,746,000 a year, would include all taxes, interest of 3½ per cent on the bonds, and a specified yearly return of 9 per cent on the original Dixon-Yates investment of $5½ million.

The administration has approved the contract but not yet signed it. It is waiting for a go-ahead from the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee, which started hearings Thursday.

Under the contract Dixon-Yates would invest $5½ million dollars of its own funds in the West Memphis plant; its cost would be 107 million dollars and obtain the rest through long-term bonds.

The Atomic Energy Commission and the Budget Bureau, starting last December, carried the ball in finally working out the contract with Dixon-Yates. Gordon R. Clapp, former TVA chairman whom Eisenhower did not reappoint when his term expired last May, said neither Eisenhower nor AFC Chairman Lewis L. Strauss ever consulted him.

The administration contends the finished, the tears were streaming down my face. I told him it was way to get needed power in the greatest thing he had written."

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Two deputy marshals were surprised when the prisoner they were taking to Federal court stopped, reached into his pocket and pulled out a check for $25,000.

"Take this and get me the best lawyer in town — and keep the change."

Then they discovered the prisoner was being taken to court to face a charge of interstate transportation of falsely made checks.

VET "PROSPECTS" FOR METAL IN COW—When Spick, seven-year-old cow owned by Fred L. Johnson, of Provo, Utah, developed a taste for iron in her system, she didn't satisfy it by eating raisins. Spick went after the metal in its raw form, ending up with assorted pieces of wire and bolts in her innards. So, as seen above, Dr. L. W. Jones, veterinarian, locates the scrap iron with the aid of a metal detector similar to that used by police to see if a convict has a file inside his underwear. At right, Dr. C. T. Jones gives Spick a shot preparatory to going after the metal while Owner Johnson, center, looks on.

During the last few days, while into a general defense program, the United States has been grossed in its own political problem of the Saar dispute with Germany threatening remain integrated with that of one of the nation's major policies France.

Political rights were to be returned to pro-German parties in the Bonn after his visit with President Eisenhower and other American was approved nobody would be officials to find the coalition parties permitted to agitate for return of on which he depends for his Saar to Germany pending a definitive settlement at some future conference on a final German peace treaty.

France is concerned, the Western European Union, by which Europe intends to incorporate Germany into its defense program, has been started on the former King property on West State street. The unit now under construction is being built by Dr. Mary Louise Newman.

The lot is immediately adjacent to another owned by Dr. E. C. Bone and Dr. Harvey Scott, who expect to erect an office building as a unit of the group.

The unit under construction for Dr. Newman will consist of four examination rooms, two consultation rooms, reception and utility rooms, kitchenette for employees.

Of brick construction, the new office building will be air-conditioned and heated by gas. It is expected to be ready for occupancy by next spring.

Harry Reiger of Springfield is the architect, and Olen Gotschal of this cut is contractor.

A parking lot will be constructed on the southeast portion of the lot where the office building is being built.

ROYAL SECRET
In England, the making of ice cream once was a royal secret. So well was it liked by Charles I that he pensioned his cook to keep it a secret for the exclusive use of the royal household.

For Germany to start kicking over the traces now would not help anything, and would put her in bad odor with the rest of the Allies.

Grotto To Buy Wheel Chair For Lincoln School

Zingabod Grotto held its monthly meeting of Wednesday, Nov. 3, with Monarch Robert DuBois presiding.

Items of routine business were cared for, including the planning of a smorgasbord to precede the annual meeting on Dec. 1. Irving Olson and Bill Jarrett were appointed co-chairmen of this project, which is planned to be a true Swedish smorgasbord. Details will be announced later.

Wilfrid Rice, chairman of the charity committee, and reporting for that committee, recommended the purchase of a wheel chair to be used by cerebral palsied children at the Lincoln school. By action of the Grotto, this was approved and the wheel chair has been ordered. This is a part of the national project of the Order. Last year, a stabilizer was purchased for use by the spastic children in the local schools. The Grotto also voted to purchase an "Enchanted Lantern Certificate," which is a contribution by the Grotto toward the Supreme Council's national humanitarian fund.

The monarch appointed the nominating committee, composed of Everett Baldwin, E. W. Chumley and John Sommers, which will report at the next meeting of the Grotto on Dec. 1. At that time election and installation of officers will be the main items of business.

After the meeting refreshments were served in the dining room.

PLEASE; SEE IT FROM THE BEGINNING! . . .

RIGHT IN THE HOLLOW OF YOUR HAND

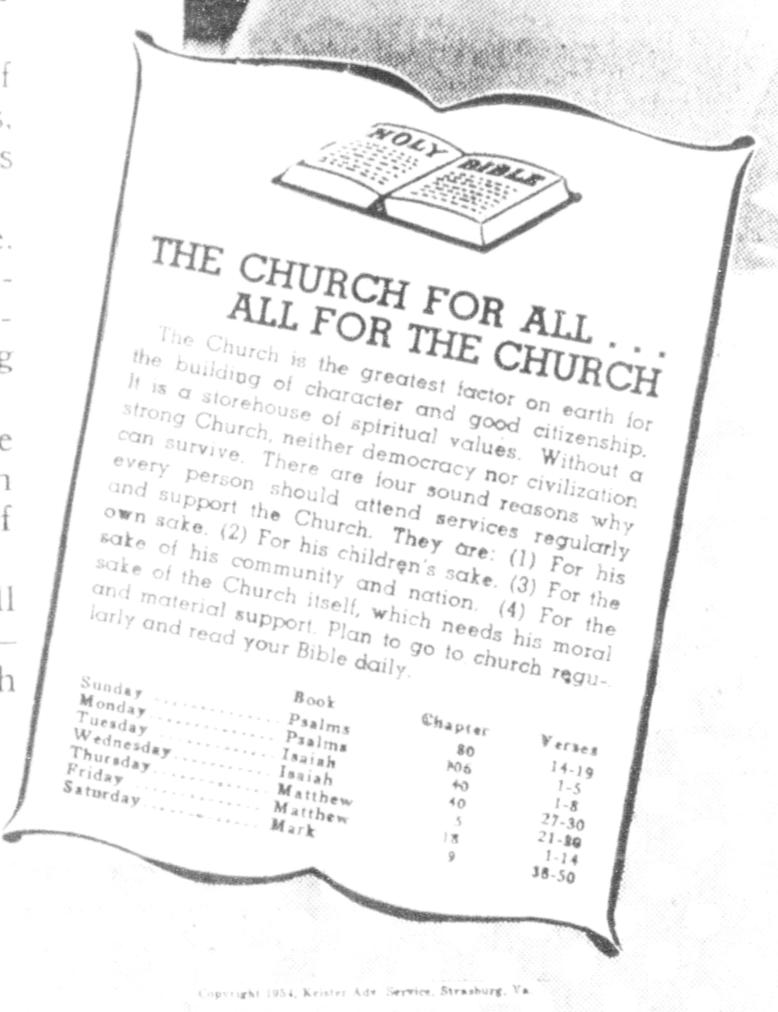

That's where the well-being of your family rests. You want to give them every comfort and convenience in your power. You want to keep them well-fed, well-clothed, and well-housed.

You want them to enjoy every advantage of modern science—through electricity, telephones, movies, radio, and television. Nothing, you say, is too good for those you love.

Of course, then, you'll want something more. You'll want your family to possess that exhilarating and priceless quality known as spiritual well-being—a conviction that God is the Supreme Being in the world.

With this faith your life will abound with hope and you will experience a sense of true security in these uncertain times. To God your destiny is of utmost importance.

Through prayer and regular worship you will find a haven of protection for all your family—right in the hollow of God's hand. Go to Church Sunday.

And look what you see from the driver's seat

Chevrolet's new Sweep-Sight Windshield curves around to vertical corner pillars, giving you a wide, full view of the road ahead. Rear and side windows are bigger, too. And you can see all four fenders from the driver's seat!

A ventilating system that really works

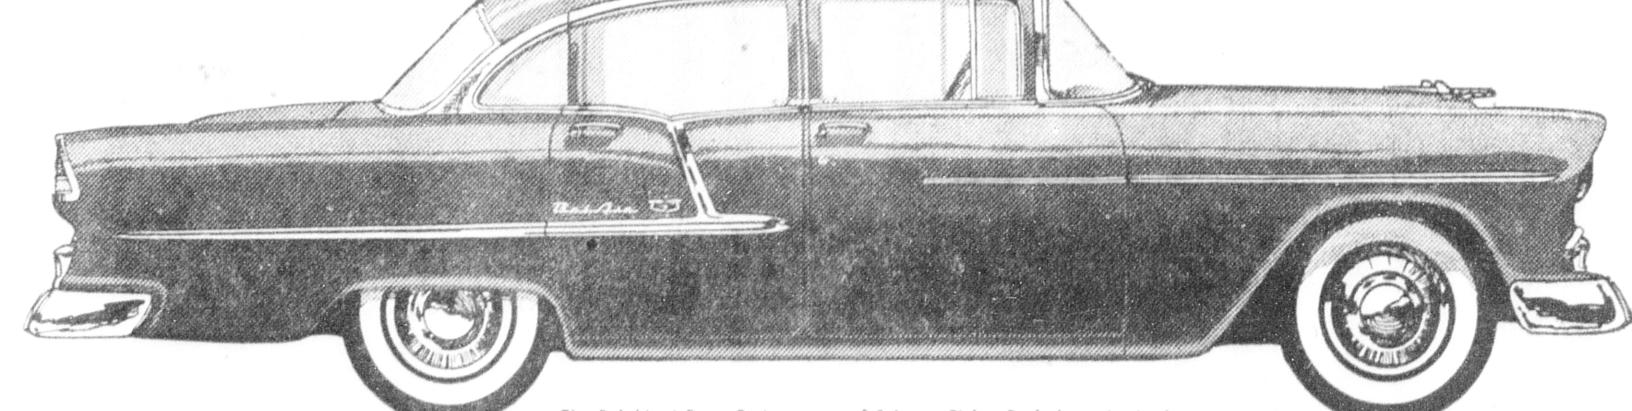

Chevrolet's new High-Level Ventilating System takes in air at hood-high level, away from road heat, fumes and dust. You enjoy better ventilation come rain or shine!

Even Air Conditioning, if you wish

Air is heated or cooled by a single highly efficient unit that fits compactly into the front of the car. Requires no trunk space! (V8 models only.) Other extra-cost options are Chevrolet's new Linkage-Type Power Steering, improved Power Brakes, and, on Bel Air and "Two-Ten" models, new Power Controls on all windows, and Power-Positioned Front Seats.

Three drives, including Overdrive

Take your choice. There's Powerglide—now even smoother and quieter—teamed with the new V8 or the new "Blue-Flame 136." There's new Overdrive teamed with the new V8 or the new "Blue-Flame 123." (Powerglide and Overdrive are extra-cost options.) And there's a new and finer standard transmission offered in combination with either the new V8 or the "Blue-Flame 123." It's the greatest choice going!

The Bel Air 4-Door Sedan—one of 14 new Fisher Body beauties in three new series

Chevrolet and General Motors have started something—a whole new age of low-cost motoring—by taking a whole new look at the low-cost car. Here are new ideas, young ideas . . . and some of tomorrow's ideas, too! And they're all rolled up in the most glamorous package that ever wore anything like a Chevrolet price tag!

Come in and meet the motoramic Chevrolet

JOHN ELLIS CHEVROLET CO.
307-11 S. MAIN ST. OPEN UNTIL 9 P.M. EACH EVENING PHONE 2925

This is the car that began with a great idea—the idea that a low-priced car could be built that would have the style, the performance, the comfort and convenience features, and the fine quality "feel" of high-priced cars.

Lots of car buyers have wished for such a car. Lots of automotive engineers have dreamed about it. But there were plenty of reasons why it couldn't be done.

Then Chevrolet and General Motors sat down and tackled the job. It took a lot of months and a lot of manpower, but they designed and built a car to fit the dream . . . a car to fulfill the great idea—the Motoramic Chevrolet for 1955.

When you think about it, it makes sense that only the world's leading motor car builders—Chevrolet and General Motors—could have done it.

Come in and see how the Motoramic Chevrolet for '55 is far more than a new model. It's more, even, than a completely new car. It's a whole new idea about cars!

SEARCH AND RESCUE BY CIVILIANS OF THE USAF

ONE OF THE principal missions of the Civil Air Patrol, the civilian auxiliary of the United States Air Force, is search and rescue. In fact, every year CAP flies far more than half the hours flown by the Air Force in such operations. To keep its pilots and other personnel in constant readiness for such emergency work, each of the 52 wings annually flies a practice SARCAP (Search and Rescue-Civil Air Patrol), the various phases of which are graded by regular United States Air Force officers of the Air Rescue Service. Probably typical of these practice SARCAPs is this one flown by the Ohio wing from Don Scott field, Columbus, Ohio.

In orderly rows, light planes of the Civil Air Patrol stand on field awaiting mission.

THE STORY: Greg Seaver, leaving a relatively secure job in search of adventure, has become chauffeur for Wade Daggett, a man who doesn't live long to live. Together they go out to travel in a trailer, seeking adventure. Then Daggett loses his life and a dispossessed person is rescued by them from a possible death by exposure in a field where he had been left by the plane that brought him into the country. Greg questions the wisdom of keeping the smuggled alien with them, but the man need for food and rest is the most important thing to be taken into account.

WHEN Greg awakened Rupert for lunch, the latter sat up beaming and not at all apologetic. He glanced once toward the liquor shelf and when he saw that it was empty he smiled and devoted himself to his meal as though he expected it to be his last.

When he had finished, he said with the overemphasis that Greg so disliked, "I am warm. I am safe. I am fed. I do not want to move from this spot. Ever." Then he laughed and sprang to his feet. "And now," he said gaily, "I will wash the dishes." Greg, who had intended to assign this task to him, felt a trifle let down. As soon as the dishes were put away, Rupert crawled into the upper bunk and fell into a heavy sleep.

"Exhaustion," Daggett explained, "and malnutrition. And for some people sleep, like alcohol, blanks out what they lack the courage to face."

"Cheaper, too. Why he doesn't stick to it."

There was a quizzical expression around Daggett's eyes. Intolerance that was so dogmatic should be outlawed in anyone over 23, he thought. He said aloud, "You don't like him."

"He may surprise you."

"That," Greg admitted, "is what I'm afraid of." Because of the trailer they skirted Boston. Rupert sat beside Greg while Daggett, who tired easily, was propped up in the back seat of the convertible.

Rupert pulled a key from his pocket, tossed it up in the air and caught it with a dexterous flick of his wrist. The car struck a bump and the key was jarred out of his hand. He scrambled around until he found it.

"Looking for a house that will fit?" Greg asked idly.

Rupert slipped the key into his pocket. "There is no house that fits."

IT was not until they reached a small industrial town that the alien was interested in his surroundings. "This is America," he declared.

"Standard brand," Greg said. "Ugh! than most."

"Ugly, yes, but it is alive, young, thrusting ahead into the future, believing that there will be a future. To a European that is a miracle in which no man dares believe!" His harsh voice was momentarily drowned out by the shrill noon whistle of a factory, the siren of an ambulance, the looting of horns. "It is full of contradictory rhythms and cacophony like a Stravinsky ballet."

"Nothing here but box factories," Greg pointed out.

"Why not boxes? Boxes to carry all the things in the advertisements. Think of boxes that way. Carrying furs to New England and beach umbrellas to Florida. I used to read American advertisements and dream—"

"Of Florida beaches?"

"Of merchandising methods,"

Rupert said in a tone of such ecstasy that Daggett let out a blast of delighted laughter. Rupert turned to look at him. "Do you realize what that means?" That people believe that they will be here tomorrow and next year; that the furniture will be used in a house with four walls and a roof, a house that will stand. The dispossessed do not buy, Mr. Daggett. They have no place to put their purchases. I like advertising. It means a kind of faith that seems fantastic and wonderful to me. Some day, if I am not told to move on—^{on} for all his lack of stress he made the contingencies seem wildly improbable—"I am going to take a product and make millions of people want it; make them feel they cannot be happy without it."

"And suppose they can't afford it?" Greg insisted.

"OF course," Rupert agreed. "So the mama says, 'I must have it,' and the papa works harder and makes more money so he can buy it for mama and there is more business for everyone."

"Go what?" Greg said sourly. "I thought—" Rupert lamented, "you were more enterprising. Take this town. It is dynamic and pretty you complain because it is not pretty."

"You had better take a closer look at it. I've got to stock up on food; suppose you come along and carry bundles."

There was an electric silence and then Rupert inquired, "Will they ask for my papers?" "Why should they?"

Rupert swaggered down the street beside Greg, wearing one of Daggett's hats at a jaunty angle and wrapped in an overcoat that belonged to the old man. It fitted his bony frame like a blanket.

The effect should have been ludicrous, but he draped the coat over his shoulders like a cape and managed to invest it with a certain rakish grace. Rupert looked like a swashbuckling character straight out of Dumas and he invested his movements with old-world glamour, while he thinned after American roots.

In the middle of the street a policeman was directing traffic. Greg grasped Rupert's arm and started toward him. Under his hand he felt the thin arm grow rigid. Then Rupert pulled away with a spasmodic jerk. Greg asked the officer for directions and turned to Rupert. He was gone.

That's right! Test drivers made more than 1000 torture runs over a road of jagged rocks—pounding over hundreds of punishing sharp edges on the same set of 1954 All-Nylon Cord Super-Cushions.

When these tires were removed and examined, not a broken cord was found—proof positive that Goodyear's exclusive 3-T Triple-Tempered All-Nylon Cord construction makes this new tire so strong—so durable that impact blowouts are practically unheard of. And for greater economy the new wider, flatter tread gives you up to 1/3 more mileage.

SPORTS TRAIL

NEW YORK (AP)—A few days ago we were speaking of small-college football, using Omaha University as an example of these comparatively unsung schools, so today we'll step down another notch to the high school level. Well progress to the midgets yet.

Today's example of the schools which provide the football fodder for the college elevens is Muskogee, Okla., and we aren't trying to start an argument as to where the best high school football is played, or gets the most rabid support.

We just happen to have a little information on Muskogee.

It gives an insight as to why the University of Oklahoma consistently ranks among the nation's leaders. Four starters on the unbeaten Sooner eleven this year are graduates of Muskogee High, and a fifth fine player is spoken of in whispers. He went to Arkansas.

The four are the Burris brothers, Kurt and Bob; Bo Belinger and Max Boydston. Kurt Burris and Boydston, center and end respectively, are rated candidates for All America honors.

Muskogee High School offers a fine example of how high school training can help make better college players. The Muskogee team ranks right up there among the state schools year after year, and this year received 150 first place votes from 150 voters as the top team in the state.

We emphasize again we are just using the Oklahoma school as an example, as we are well aware of the high class of football played in other states, and the fervor interest the teams engender.

Texas, for example, is just one big nest of high school football, and the class of its better teams is beyond question.

Ohio long as been known for the number and class of its high school teams, and anyone who hasn't heard of Massillon just doesn't follow football.

Pennsylvania is another state which not only provides adequate material for its own college teams, but a highly hunting ground for talent scouts from all parts of the country.

No state or town has a monopoly on first class high school football. It's a case of let's you and him fight. We want no part of it.

Pittsfield Tops White Hall 27-0

WHITE HALL—(Special)—Coach Glenn Smith's Pittsfield Saukies remained undefeated in Illinois Valley competition as they handed White Hall 27-0 setback here last night.

The Saukies got the scoring under way in the first quarter when Sanderson and Heyenker drove through for touchdowns. Rhodes converted after Sanderson's TD and the Saukies lead 13-0 at the end of the initial period.

Pittsfield scored twice more in the third period. A pass to Petty was good for 20 yards and the third TD while a pass to S. Smith connected for the final TD.

The Maroons end their season Thursday against Roodhouse.

DISLOCATES SHOULDER

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Quarterback Dick Shockley of Marquette suffered a shoulder dislocation in practice and probably will be lost for the rest of the season. Coach Frosty Fazza said Friday.

About 9220,000 U. S. wives now hold jobs outside their homes compared with a peak of seven million during World War II.

ISD Tops Dupo 19-7; 5th In Row

DUPO — (Special) — Coach Jim Spink's Illinois School for the Deaf Tigers won their 5th straight and their 7th game of the season last night as they defeated host Dupo 19-7.

The Blueboys will be seeking their third win of the season to go with three losses. Coach Al Miller's eleven defeated Eureka 20 to the season's opener and William Penn 40-12 in the homecoming tilt for the two victories. The three losses have been at the hands of Principia, Rose Poly and Culver Stockton. The Blueboys end their season next Friday night when they journey to Carthage for a game with the Redmen.

Injuries continue to cause a manpower shortage at the hilltop. Ken Vierck, promising freshman halfback, won't be in uniform again this week. Also out will be Jim Ridings, end, and the other end Frame.

The loss of the two starting ends may cause the shifting of two tackles to the flanker positions and thus creating a problem in the middle of the line.

However such key performers as quarterback Bob Winstead, center Gary Curtiss, guards Don Hazelrigg and Fred Goodey, end Bill Horley and fullback Dick Capato will be ready for their "60-minutes" of football. These six men have played close to 360 hours in the six games.

Boxing Official Suggests Ban On Professionals

CHICAGO (AP)—Louis Radzienda, a boxing official for both Illinois and the National Boxing Assn. Friday suggested a federal government ban on professional boxing for at least a year "if nothing is done legally" to investigate "alleged hoodlum elements."

Radzienda, a member of the Illinois State Athletic Commission and next in line for the NBA presidency, said to his knowledge the Illinois commission has had "no difficulty with persons of ill repute or alleged hoodlums," but that there has been difficulty nationally.

He said "hoodlum association" with boxing "has been in existence for a long time, but with more power and strength today."

Radzienda, saying he was speaking only as an individual, declared:

"If nothing is done to clean up the situation as it is today legally, then the government should perhaps abolish professional boxing for a year or two, during which time the alleged undesirable characters would diminish their financial resources and be compelled to seek other means of livelihood."

Radzienda, current first NBA vice president, issued his statement in commenting on a Chicago Daily News series charging hoodlum invasion of boxing.

MT. STERLING—(Special)—Rushville defeated Mt. Sterling 26-0 in the final game of the season for the Hornets.

The visitors scored twice in the second period on an intercepted pass and a fumble. They scored again on an intercepted pass in the fourth period as the Mt. Sterling offense failed to click. Their final TD came on a 20-yard smash off tackle.

The Hornets threatened once in the contest as they moved the ball to the three yard line only to lose possession on a fumble.

MENDES-FRANCE ASKS VOTE OF CONFIDENCE

PARIS (AP)—In a surprise move to ram his program through at record speed, Premier Pierre Mendes-France asked the National Assembly Friday for a vote of confidence on his handling of the French budget.

The spending has been set at about $1 billion dollars with a deficit of about $600 million.

He seemed likely to get the backing he wants when the Assembly meets again next Tuesday.

The demand meant Mendes-

France would quit if the majority votes against him.

About 9220,000 U. S. wives now hold jobs outside their homes compared with a peak of seven million during World War II.

Buckeyes May Be Due For Upset; Illinois Goes To Michigan

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

OHIO STATE AND ARKANSAS—Under heavy growing pressure—appeared ripest for plucking Saturday as the college football season heads into the November crescendo.

The Buckeyes of Ohio State turned and hobbled, are host at Columbus to Pittsburgh, an aroused group nationally by ABC. Kickoff is at 2 p.m. CST. Baylor is a four-point favorite.

Of the other top 10 teams, Purkin No. 8, is figured in the greatest danger of defeat. The Badgers, makers, are a slight underdog against big, tough Iowa at Iowa City. Iowa's line is rated good enough to slow down Lenny Day's passing, and Bill Murakowski's plunges.

Arkansas, surprise of the Southwest, is a three-point underdog in its conference game over Iowa State. Missouri No. 5, is rated 32 points over victoryless Pennsylvania at Philadelphia Army No. 7 behind Miami, is 17 over Yale in the extra point and the Flashes took the lead 13-6.

The other four members of the major unbeaten-united list are favored to protect their perfect records.

Top-ranked UCLA is a three-touchdown choice over Oregon at Los Angeles. Oklahoma rules a 27-

Franklin Cops 1st Win, Whips Nokomis 13-6

FRANKLIN—(Special)—Coach Bill Farley's Franklin Flashes

won their first game of the season last night as they defeated visiting Nokomis 13-6.

It was a beautiful pass play from quarterback Beatty to halfback Brassfield who caught the ball on the midfield stripe and raced the 50-yards for the game's only touchdown.

Brassfield came back to kick the extra point and give the visitors a 7-0 victory.

Taylorville had a TD called back early in the contest. After Jacksonville received, they were forced to punt on fourth down and the visitors took over on their own 42. A pass play carried to the Jacks' 30 where another Beatty to Brassfield toss carried into the end zone.

However Taylorville was off sides and the TD didn't enter the record book. The Jacksonville line held at that point and the visitors were forced to kick.

Franklin came back late in the second quarter to tie the score at 6-6. Leo Woods went over from the three yard line for the score. The attempted conversion was not good.

Late in the third period Franklin scored its second TD. Jim Allen went around left end to hit paydirt. A pass from Richard Hart to Bob Rawlings was good for the extra point and the Flashes took the lead 13-6.

In the fourth period the hosts controlled the ball most of the time. Franklin moved to the three yard line but Nokomis on one occasion out of the game between Colorado and Missouri Saturday at Columbia, Mo. Nebraska plays Kansas.

Other games:

East—Fordham at West Virginia, Navy at Duke, Syracuse at Cornell, Harvard at Princeton, Holy Cross at Penn State, Columbia at Dartmouth.

In the fourth period the hosts controlled the ball most of the time. Franklin moved to the three yard line and marched down field to tie the Crimsons' four yard marker before the Jacks' line tightened their belts and held on for successive plays. This march was highlighted by the fine passing of quarterback Beatty and the running of Brassfield.

Taylorville had the ball most of the third period but the Jacks took over with three minutes to go and Larry Scott picked up three first downs before the Crimsons lost the ball on the 45.

The ball changed hands several times in the fourth quarter after the visitors had scored on the 75-yard pass play.

The Crimsons took over on their own 33 but failed to keep the ball on for two successive plays. This march was highlighted by the fine passing of quarterback Beatty and the running of Brassfield.

The Charlevoix high school had paid the fares.

The visitors didn't have any hotel reservations.

Coach Murphy went home with the assistant coaches, managers and players did likewise with their opposite members of Stonewall Jackson.

The Toledo visitors will eat and sleep off their opponents until Saturday night.

They'll bang each other around on the gridiron Friday night. Saturday they'll be buddies again. The Ohioans will be shown around Charleston.

Next year, Stonewall Jackson will go to Toledo Nov. 4 and have the deal reversed.

It is Murphy's idea.

"High school teams can't afford long trips," says Murphy. "But if we can work out some arrangements like this, with the courteous touch, and also give our kids an educational trip in some distant city, I think we've accomplished something good."

Murphy carries his courtesy to his scoreboard. Most designate the invaders as "opponents" or "visitors."

On the scoreboards at Devilliers

they're called "guests."

Jerseyville Stops Greenfield 32-6

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP)—Coach Forest Evashevski Friday night received the keys to a 1955 Cadillac at a homecoming pep rally on the campus of the State University of Iowa.

The keys were presented to the popular Iowa coach by Bill Gray, Cedar Rapids attorney, who said he represented the people of Iowa and Iowa alumni. Iowa meets Purdue here Saturday.

Gray told the gathering, estimated at between 10,000 to 15,000, that "when Evy came here three years ago all we expected was a respectable team."

"This car is for the fine job he has done in building Iowa a respectable football team."

Acknowledging the gift, Evy said:

"It's like giving a small bear a prize for eating honey. It is the team which has done the work."

Plans to recognize Evy and his staff were started after Iowa lost games to Michigan and Ohio State this fall. It was born of the desire to show the staff that win or lose Iowa fans are with them.

GERMANY'S BOXING BAD BOY IN U. S.

He said he did not know yet who his opponent will be.

13,521 Vote In County Election; Blue Ballot Wins

An official canvass of the vote cast by Morgan county citizens in Tuesday's election was completed Thursday afternoon at the office of County Clerk George T. Douglas.

The plan to honor Korean veterans was formulated by the state Veterans of Foreign Wars, whose Commander, Raymond W. Schild of Chicago, said:

"Korean Veterans Recognition Week" will be observed in Illinois by official proclamation of Governor Stratton from Nov. 7 to 13.

The closest contest for county office was decided by 600 votes.

The official canvass brought out figures on the constitutional amendments, or blue ballot, showing Morgan county gave staunch support to the propositions.

The legislative apportionment received a vote of: Yes 7196; No 2148.

On the state treasurer amendment the vote was: Yes 6758; No 2335.

On the Illinois and Michigan canal amendment the vote was: Yes 6711; No 2292.

A total of 13,531 votes were cast in Morgan county, somewhat below the estimate of 14,000 made by the Journal Courier on the day before election. The total registration is 19,250.

Members of the canvassing board were Justice L. D. Deatherage of Waverly; Justice William Messersmith of this city, and County Clerk Douglas.

Audience Calls For Encores From Vronsky-Babin

By HUGH BEGGS

The current season of the Civic Music Association concerts was launched Thursday evening with a recital of music for two pianos by Vilma Vronsky and Victor Babin at Annie Merner Chapel on the MacMurray College campus.

Vronsky and Babin (Mr. and Mrs. Babin in private life) made their American debut in 1937. They quickly climbed to the top rank among du-pianists and have maintained this position through the years. Their artistry has been noted for perfection of technique, keenness of musical perception, and power of expression. Their years of experience have added a mellowness and expansiveness that makes an evening of their music complete delight. It is a pleasure to hear du-pianists who strive for more than perfect ensemble and whose chief aim is not merely to sound twice as loud as one piano.

The program was excellently chosen. It began with Sonata No.

6 in G major by J. S. Bach transcribed for two pianos by Victor Babin. The opening vivace, with its sturdy vigor, set an amiable mood. The slow movement was in aria style, ornate yet warm and flowing.

Of extraordinary beauty was the Fantasy in F minor for one piano, four hands, by Schubert. In this Schubert seems to be particularly lavish with his great melodic gifts.

At no time during the program was the patina of the artists' tone more evident, or the sense of musical communication more telling.

The program continued with the arrival of the Hart school house, west of Woodson, beginning Sunday evening, Nov. 7, to which the public is invited. The services will be conducted by Misses Jean Lantz and Nettie Hill, evangelists.
